

FDA Withdrawal of Makena®

Information for all network providers

Effective April 6, 2023, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has withdrawn their approval of Makena® and all generic 17 Hydroxy Progesterone from the market for prevention of preterm birth.

Based on the removal of FDA approval:

- Molina will not be able to accept new prescriptions for Makena® or any generic version.
- This applies to pharmacy benefits as well as medical benefits.
- All home health services for administering progesterone will be canceled.

Find additional information on the FDA website at fda.gov/drugs in the “FDA withdraws approvals of Makena and its generics” article.
